SHIRLEY MASON

IN

"The Winning Girl"

She was an easy-going sort of girl—until she was in danger. Then she became a tigress.

She's tiny in stature, but she's full of "whizz, bang, punch!"

That one moment when she corners the "human snake"—that'll satisfy your desire for thrills.

William Duncan

MILLERSBURG

—Col. W. M. Layson remains about the same.

—Figs! Figs! Get them at Caldwell's. The last of the season.

—Regular meeting of Amity Lodge No. 40, F. & A. M., at 8:00 p. m. to-day.

—Mrs. R. P. Hopper, of Mayslick, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. C. Leer, Friday.

—Rev. W. W. Morton and Mr. W. D. McIntyre returned Friday from Atlanta, Ga., where they attended the General Association of the Southern Presbyterian Church.

—At the meeting of the promoters of the Millersburg Chautauqua at the Millersburg Coal and Lumber office, Friday evening, all of the officers were re-elected for the coming year: Pres. W. D. McIntyre, vice president, R. M. Caldwell, secretary, W. A. Butler, treasurer, S. M. Allen. The various committees are to be appointed by the president and will be made known in a few days.

TO CHANGE MOUNTAIN'S NAME

Tacoma and Seattle, away up in Washington, and other communities out in that direction, are having a wordy wrangle over what to call the great mountain that towers to the clouds "just across the river." It is set down in the geography as Mount Rainier, but the people of Tacoma call it Mount Tacoma, and now there is a considerable number of persons in that country who want it named after the late Col. Roosevelt—they want it called Mount Roosevelt.

The name "Rainier" was given the mountain by the Canadians, in honor of a British Admiral of that name who sank an American vessel during the Revolutionary War. Naturally, the name is not particularly popular on this side of the border. The Indians called it "Tacoma," the tribe itself bore the same name, which means simply "the mountain." The Tacoma Indians were "the Mountain Indians."

GREAT INTEREST IN NEW TRACTION LINE

Louisville business men are taking active steps to assure success of the project for connecting Louisville with Lexington and the Bluegrass through construction of a traction line between Shelbyville and Frankfort, joining the lines of the Kentucky Terminal & Traction Company, running out of Lexington to Frankfort, and the Louisville & Interurban Railway Company, running from Louisville to Shelbyville.

Through freight and passenger service between Louisville and the Bluegrass, long regarded as essential to a full interchange of business between Louisville and Central Kentucky communities and to offset competition from Cincinnati and other cities, is offered in the new project. Twenty-one miles of traction line, costing approximately $400,000, must be built to close up the gap. The Frankfort & Shelbyville Electric Railway Company, incorporated in October, 1917, has a ninety-nine-year franchise, has obtained rights-of-way through the full length of the route and has traffic agreements assuring through freight and passenger rates with connecting lines.

ANYBODY KNOW THEM?

In the Cincinnati Enquirer court news column, Saturday, appeared the following:

"Judge Hoffman took under consideration the suit of William Parks, of 621 Carlisle avenue, for divorce from Sophronia Parks, of Paris, Ky."

DEATHS.

DILLS.

—Lewis H. Dills died at his home on Wilson avenue, in Cynthiana, Saturday morning after an illness of several months of cancer. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Dills. He is survived by his wife, and two daughters, Miss Studie Dills and Mrs. John Lee, of Paris; a sister, Mrs. Studie Spohn and two brothers, Roger and James Dills.

The funeral services were held at the residence yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. J. D. Armistead, of the Christian church. The burial was at Battle Grove Cemetery. The pall-bearers were E. E. Clark, R. C. Bell, S. S. Moore, S. C. Kenton, D. N. Rees and W. T. King.

THE DESPISED BRIER.

"Good land for blackberries" is an expression, used by many owners of good soil, when describing the productive qualities of a piece of land that appears to be rather barren. It would seem, however, that the despised briar is to be the real aristocrat this year. With the fruit crop at about zero, strawberries few and far between, and only a bunch of grapes here and there, the good housewife will be willing to risk staining and scratching her hands, that the shelves in the cellar may not be entirely empty. The heavy bloom which all the members of the briar family are putting forth, is certainly a welcome sight and when the winter months arrive and no fruit appears on the table, the man of the house may wish that he had at least an acre or two of "good land for blackberries."

CABLE PRESIDENT TO LIFT BAN ON LIQUOR.

Appeal was made by Representative Dyer, Republican, Missouri, in a cablegram to President Wilson to issue a proclamation declaring wartime prohibition void, in view of the apparent determination of Congress to let the law stand.

The Missouri Representative in his message stated that public hearings had gone far enough to satisfy him that repeal measures had no chance with the House Judiciary Committee.

Hope was expressed that the President would take action on his own authority at once.

SIX FORGOTTEN NATIONS

(Standard Union.)

Self-determination is uppermost in the minds of the 5,000 members of the six nations, now wards of the Canadian Government and occupying a reservation in the province of Ontario. The dog question has made it a burning issue. The Indian Department wants to tax the red men's dogs, and the Indians protest, basing their legal objections on treaty rights which stipulates that these folks are "allies" of the Canadian Government and therefore an independent people. The Indians will fight the proposed tax through the courts if need be, not only because they are as anxious as ever to maintain their rights, but because the more dogs an Indian community has the happier the inhabitants are. The descendants of the "Romans of the West," as the Iroquois confederacy was rightly called, retained much of the pride, firmness and haughtiness of their forefathers. They always did stand out for what they considered their own, and in doing so now are demonstrating that the old spirit is alive even though it may have seemed extinct.

JOINT MEETING EDUCATIONAL AND PRESS ASSOCIATION.

The big event of the K. E. A. this year is the joint session on Thursday evening, June 26, of the Kentucky Educational Association and the Kentucky Press Association. It will be the first time that the teachers and editors have met together. These two organizations represent greater power than any other in the State, and their coming together on June 26th means that they are in earnest about the reconstruction problems which face us and will pull together to accomplish the tasks they see ahead.

Governor Henry A. Allen, of Kansas, is the chief speaker on the K. E. A. program this year. He was once known as the great Western orator, but is now known as the great orator of the United States. His work in France during the war and his nomination and election to the office of Governor during his absence, make him a peculiarly distinguished figure. Governor Allen is on the Educational Committee of the National Security League and is having a large share in the new educational program. He has toured this country in the interest of the Red Cross, suffrage and various other causes, and whatever his subject or wherever he speaks, there is usually an overflow meeting.

Kentucky's Governor, one of Kentucky's editors and Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart will compose the Kentucky talent on the program that evening.

There are eleven thousand teachers and five hundred editors in this State. The first Christian Church, Louisville, in which this final great program is to be given, may not seat them all, but arrangements will be made to take care of the overflow and to have duplicate programs if necessary.

R. E. Williams, Secretary of the K. E. A. and J. C. Alcock, Secretary of the K. P. A. expect this to be a record-breaking meeting.

INTEREST IN MASONIC CAMPAIGN GROWING DAILY.

Interest in the million dollar campaign for a new widows' and orphans' home in Louisville to be erected by the Masons within the next year is growing daily.

As chairman of the committee, G. Allison Holland, of Lexington, is receiving numerous inquiries from Masons from all over the State asking now they may help and when they may subscribe.

The mail to the chairman's office is heavy with letters from Kentucky Masons in the State and out. It is becoming evident that the amount which will be raised will go beyond the million dollar mark. Mr. Holland said.

Organization of the forces under the direction of the committee is being rapidly completed throughout the State. There will be a division of the State into congressional districts, and a further division by counties. Where there is more than one lodge in the county there will be an organization for each lodge. Committee members are writing Mr. Holland of the completion of their organizations and the rapid strides the canvassers are making.

DAYLIGHT REPEAL BILL IS ORDERED REPORTED.

With a legislative rider for repeal of the daylight savings act, effective next October, the agricultural appropriation bill was ordered favorably reported by the Senate Agricultural Committee. Chairman Gronna plans to call it up early this week.

The Bureau of Lands of the Philippines has approved two applications for leases of coal lands covering an area of about 3,800 acres.

BIRTHS.

—In this city, to the wife of Capt. Morton C. Collier, a son, christened Ray Leland Collier. The mother was formerly Miss Ida Meyer.

—In this city, Saturday, to the wife of Mr. John Duvall, the popular conductor of the city traction car, a son. Mrs. Duvall was formerly Miss Princess Whaley, of Paris.

The pro rata share of the money in circulation in this country is $54.56—nearly $5 more than it was a year ago.

LAUNDRIES IN CHURCHES

(World Outlook.)

Hand laundries in churches! Why not! Man must be clean of body as well as pure of heart. They believe this out in Pasadena, Calif., where they recently replaced a rude chapel, which hadn't a pane of glass in it, with this institutional church for Mexicans.

It cost $6,000. But that isn't much when it is on record that besides the hand laundry, it has a dormitory for men, a day nursery, club and class rooms.

The Centenary of Methodist Missions is planning to build sixty-five churches of this kind and a great Plaza Community Center at Los Angeles, also.

HOUSE OF LORDS TO ALLOW REQUEST FOR DEATH MASS.

Heretofore it has been illegal to make bequests in the United Kingdom for the saying of masses for the dead. The money so left reverted back to the estate for the benefit of the next of kin.

The House of Lords has brought joy to the hearts of Roman Catholics all over the world by changing the law. From now on it is lawful here to make such bequests.
